CAMP MENNOSCAH

Build your house on the rock,
 And come play in the sand!

“Camp has played a huge role in my journey since my first time as a camper nine years ago. Some of the people I've met here are now my closest friends, a second family. This is the first place where I really felt God's presence and the place where I finally believed that Christ loved me. This is because of the love and acceptance that I felt and continue to feel daily here. This authentic Christian community has inspired me and supported me through both high points and low points in my life. This summer has been a high-point, and I am so grateful for the opportunity to be a staffer here at camp.

Grateful for the relationships with campers, counselors, and other staff members that impact me more than they know.

Grateful for a summer that reminds me to slow down, appreciate the little things, and to trust in Christ.

Grateful for the nature and the beauty of God's creation that surrounds me.

Grateful for the memories that will last a lifetime.”

- Hannah S., 2017

Build your house on the rock, come play in the sand!

Jesus often confronted the world around him with another way of being and by his example, we are reminded that God always invites us to re-imagine who we are and how we do things. Being at camp, we are already finding another way, apart from the trappings and distractions of home. In the peace of this space, we will explore what would change if we lived as our authentic selves and respected the truths of others. In this humility, we will imagine how growing changes the way we live. In this potential for transformation, we will imagine how our personal change meets the change we seek in the world. Whether we are addressing unfair rules or dreaming of a time when all people belong, we know that God calls us to do a new thing and faithfully forge another way.
